

CYBERSECURITY: Look no further!

Inflow Technologies has you covered.

What is Cybersecurity?

Cybersecurity is the state of protecting the electronic data from unauthorized or criminal use, or the steps taken to achieve this.

Types of Cybersecurity

Application Security

Information Security

Disaster recovery

Network Security

Website Security

Endpoint recovery

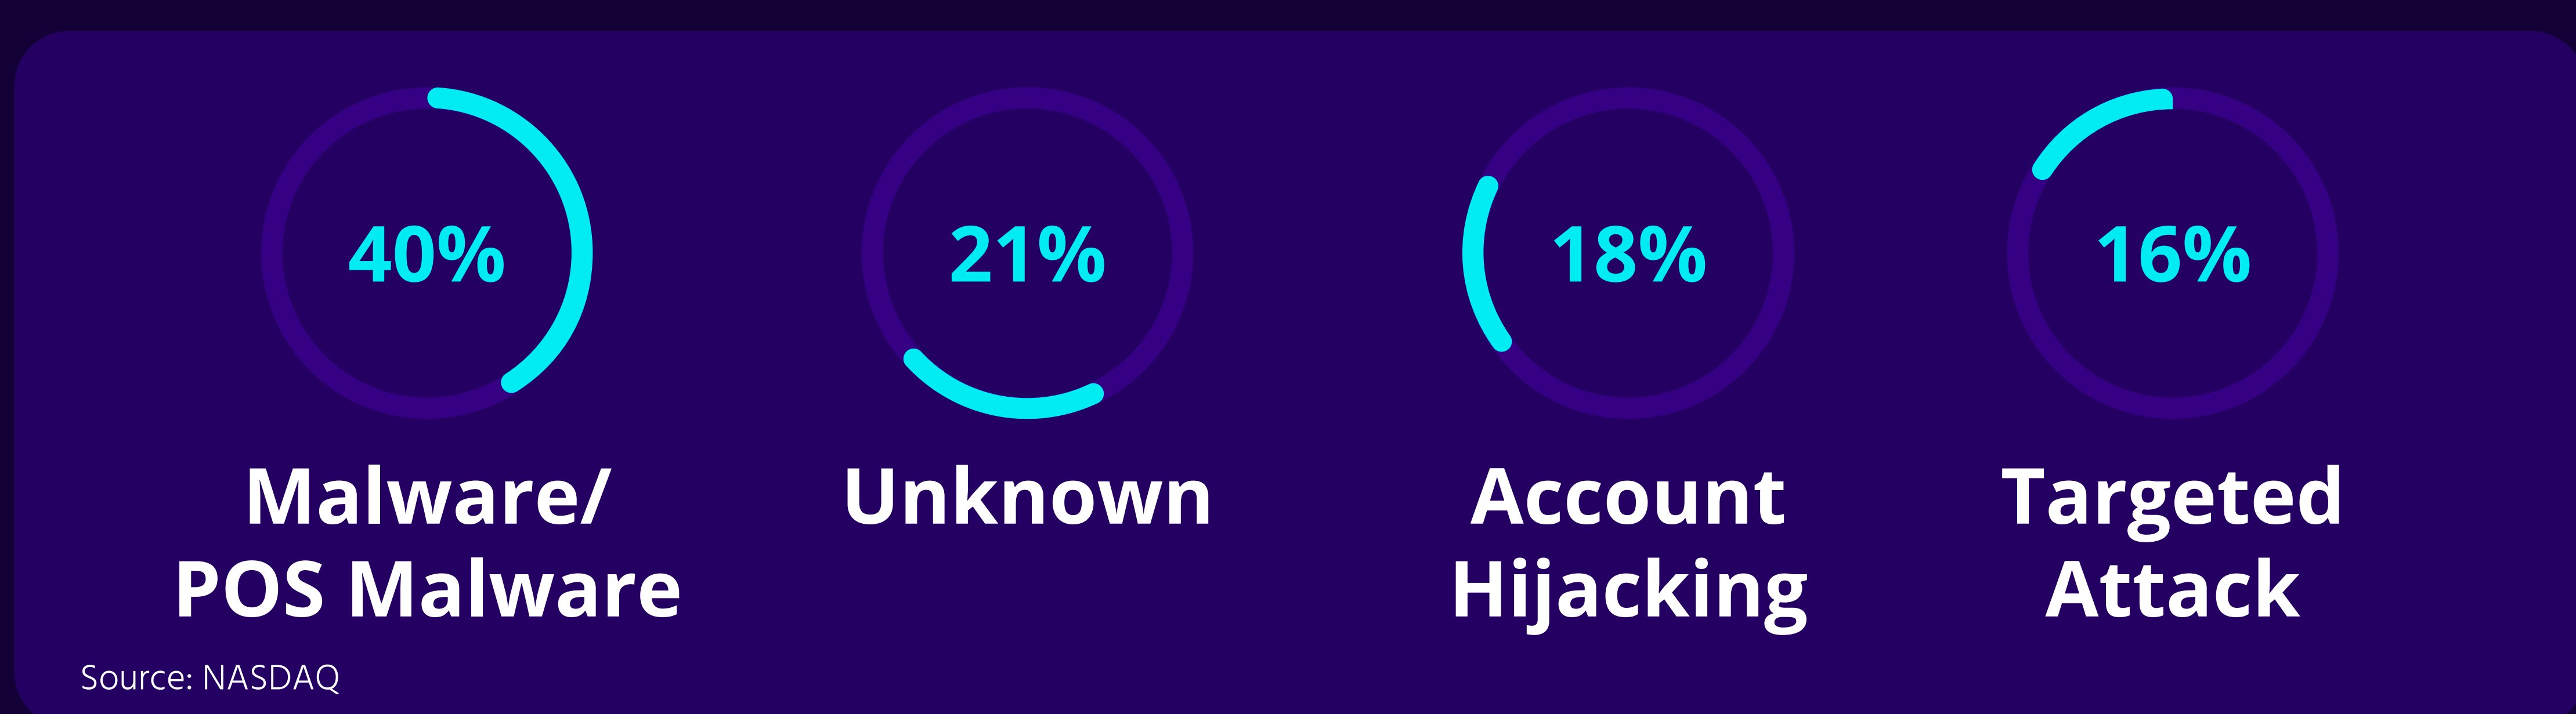

Source: YOUTH KI AWAAZ

Cyberthreats: Should you be worried?

Cyber threat is a malicious act of damaging or disrupting computer network, also called 'Hacking.'

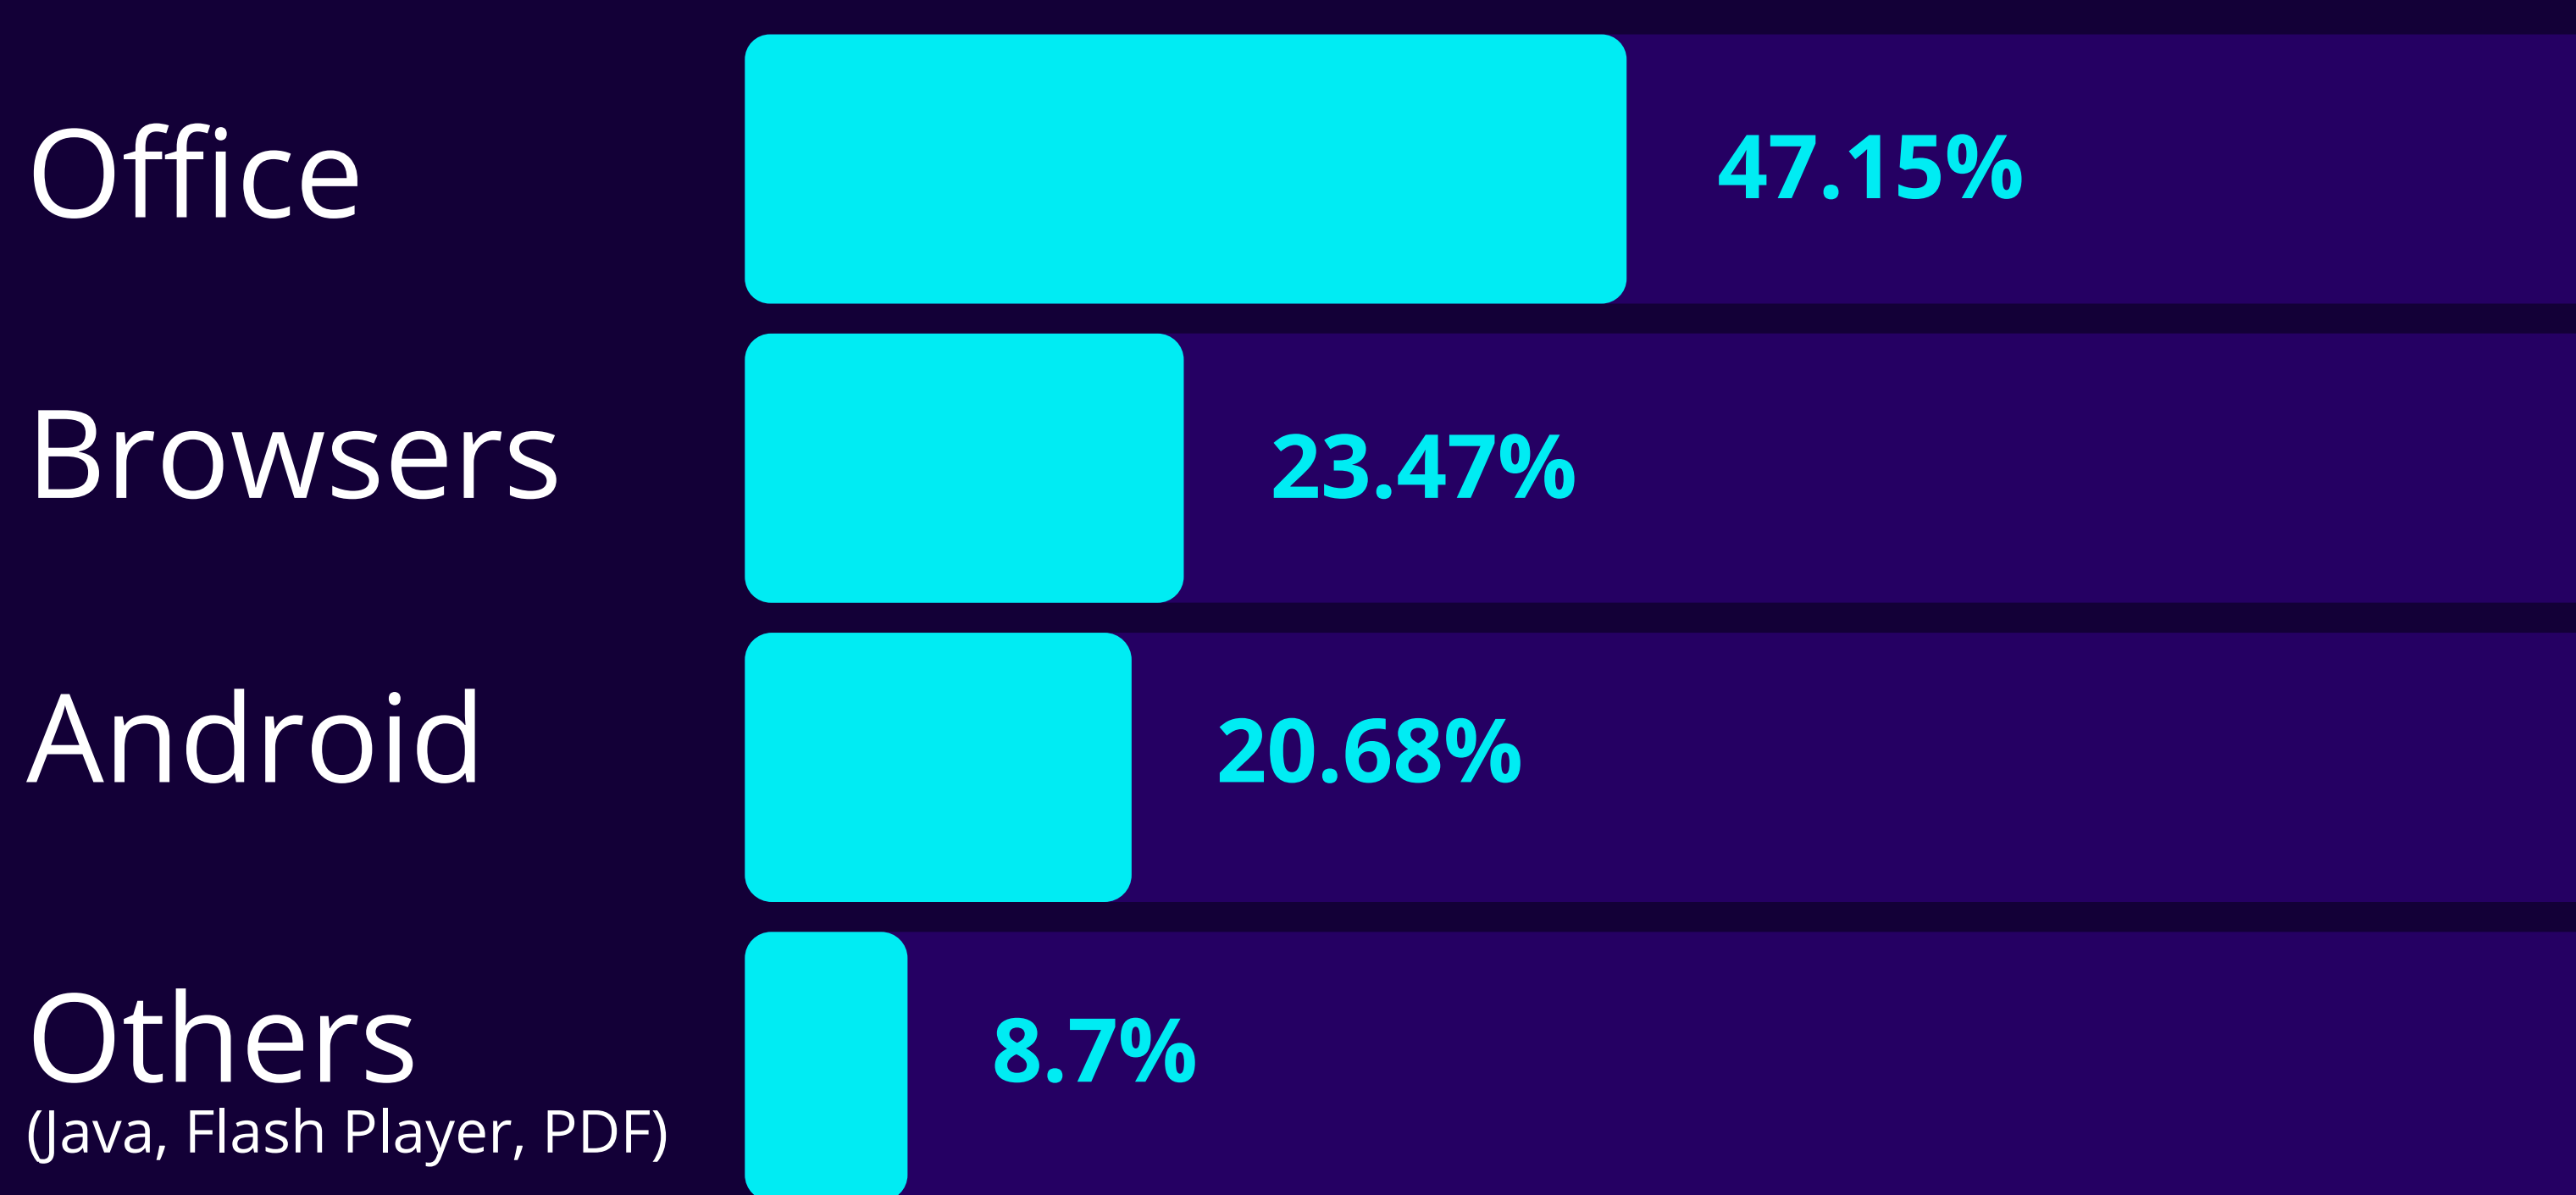

Types of Cyber threats:

The impact of cyberattacks has grabbed the attention of countries like the United States of America, and has deemed cybercrime one of the biggest issues facing national security.

Source: NASDAQ

Software applications most commonly affected by cyber-attacks:

Source: Kaspersky Labs, 2018

Cyber Security? You've come to the right place.

Partnered with the best in the world in terms of securing data across multiple levels and scalable protocols, our Cyber Security products to ensure your information is secured effectively, efficiently and cost-effectively.

Partnered with the best Information Security Products Partners globally

At Inflow Technologies, we understand business data and the technologies that manage, store and move that information for you and your clients.

Visit www.inflowtechnologies.com to find out more

